A REFLECTION

FROM FR. JOHN

I have been reflecting on the joy of being a Catholic priest. It is a great privilege to serve here in Sullivan and Jasonville and taking a moment to be grateful and give God thanks is important to my spiritual life. Happiness occurs in the moment but joy, as defined in the dictionary, is a feeling of great pleasure that comes from success, good fortune, or a sense of well-being.

You might ask, where do you find this success and well-being at Saint Mary and Saint Joan of Arc? This joy flows from the basic thrust of my ministry, that is to bring the Eucharist to the people of God. The Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our faith; in bringing the Eucharist to our communities, the priest brings the people the very joy they seek.

The path towards God is a route to eternity. In eternity, we will all have the everlasting happiness that only God provides. Saint Thomas Aquinas, speaking of happiness, tells us, “God alone satisfies.” This is a basic principle of my joy in being a Catholic priest; knowingly bringing God to the people of faith is fulfilling because I am providing the very foundation for a life of peace, love and joy.

People desire happiness in this mortal life, through all the suffering and trials that accompany us on our journey.

Saint Augustine observes, “We all want to live happily; in the whole human race there is no one who does not assent to this proposition...” Saint John Paul II articulates this happiness and how it relates to the Eucharist, “Each time we are reunited in the Eucharist, we are strengthened in holiness and renewed in happiness, for happiness and holiness are the inevitable consequences of being with God.” This is the power of the real presence and is the treasury of the Catholic Church.

As human beings we all desire the basic happiness that only God provides, and gaining that eternal happiness is a difficult journey. Jesus said, “How narrow the gate and constricted the road that leads to life. And those who find it are few.” (Matthew 7:14)

This is what the people of God seek, and the Eucharist and the Sacraments are our means of surely finding it. St. Augustine prays, “...let me seek you so that my soul may live, for my body draws life from my soul and my soul draws life from you.” Helping each of you to experience God in a real way brings me great joy! May your joy in receiving Christ match my joy in bringing God into our world.
