Beatitude Gratitude

I sincerely thank each person in the community of Saint Mary and Saint Joan of Arc who welcomed me into your life. “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Each person that comes here seeking the love, peace, mercy, and forgiveness of Christ gives me great hope.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.” Thank you for allowing me the privilege of bearing the Cross with you. Even though our mortal coils cause us to suffer, you have shown me the dignity of pushing on in faith, hope, and love, and I thank you.

So many people help this Church in small and big ways expecting nothing in return. Often no one knows who silently makes our Parish work by doing our chores, paying our bills, and sharing their gifts, without being asked, without seeking acknowledgement. “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.” You made me welcome here; you make me humble.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.” The Community Kitchen and Pantry has taught me the power of bonding with others as the Body of Christ. When I think of your selflessness, I am reminded that each of us is held to a higher standard, the love of Christ; for you I give thanks.

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.” I am grateful to each person who forgave me, forgives me, and will forgive me, for my humanness. In my lack of perfection, you have guided me towards the Trinity. If I said the wrong thing, did not treat you as Christ, or hurt your feelings in any way, I beg you now for your pardon and forgiveness.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.” I have deep gratitude for those of you sharing the Sacraments of Baptism, Communion, Confirmation, Confession, and Matrimony, all the while seeking the mercy and forgiveness of Christ. Your faith in Holy Mother Church fuels my spirituality; your steadfast attendance is my blessing.

These times are challenging for the community, the Church, our country, and the world. Within these parishes, I see countless individuals who seek unity and heal divisiveness, all glory be to God. “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.” I came here in peace, and leave here in peace; I am indebted to you.

Many here have demonstrated the dignity of standing up for the Kingdom of God. “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth; and yet still, I owe you thanks.

“Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.” Living in a “cancel culture,” and a “culture of death,” is challenging at best and discouraging at worst. Thank you for your Catholicity in the face of hardness of heart. You have imprinted on my heart lessons I will always carry.

In the peace and love of Christ, I remain,
Father John Pfister.
