A REFLECTION

FROM FR. SURESH

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Jesus Christ,

Meals played an important role in the society in which Jesus lived. More than a time for sharing nourishment, they were a time to share ideas and to model different aspects of social relationships. In Luke's Gospel, the places that a person ate, the people with whom a person ate, whether a person washed before eating, and, as is the case here, the place that a person sits while eating is all important.

The narrator says Jesus tells a parable, but it is really wise advice to both guest and hosts about finding true happiness at the heavenly banquet.

Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This is more than just a lesson about dinner etiquette. It is advice on how to find your true place in the Kingdom of God. Jesus advises hosts not to invite people who would be expected to repay them to dinner but to invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. This is where real blessings can be found.

In these sayings, Luke gives us not only advice on how to approach the end times but also on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. Luke's Gospel also advises us how the Church must be part of bringing about this society. It is yet another example in Luke's Gospel of the reversal the kingdom brings about.

Sharing a meal with others is a true sign of fellowship and friendship, so we as one family of St. Mary's and St. Joan should gather once in a while apart from Holy Eucharist for a common meal at our churches as one family of God.

REFLECTION

This week my Provincial Superior Rev. Fr. Jayaraj was in our Diocese for a visit. He was with me this week and I drew him to different places of our diocese where priests from my Order are working. His main purpose of visit was to reenergize the family spirit as one congregation of Heralds of Good News. We prayed the Holy Rosary together, ate meals together and played cards together. Conversation was also a main part of our gatherings.

Likewise, let us pray as on family of God and live as one family of God.

GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Suresh Babu Bakka
