A REFLECTION

FROM FR. SURESH

Dear friends in Jesus Christ,

Søren Kierkegaard, the Danish philosopher, once told a story about a make-believe country where only ducks lived. On Sunday morning all the ducks came into Church, waddled down the aisle, waddled into their pews and squatted. Then the duck minister came in, took his place behind the pulpit, opened the Duck Bible and read, "Ducks! You have wings, and with wings you can fly like eagles. You can soar into the skies! Ducks! You have wings!" All the ducks yelled, "Amen!" and then they all waddled home. No one flew or even tried.

Friends, there's just too much truth to that little fable. Using the parable of a rascal manager in today's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to see that it is time for the children of light to quit waddling. It's time for us to soar by using wisely our God-given talents and blessings for the welfare of others, thus glorifying God and becoming eligible for our eternal reward.

Yours in Christ.
