A REFLECTION

FROM FR. SURESH

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Jesus Christ,

As we get older, we get a clearer sense that life is short and that each of us will face the moment of death before very long. Last Sunday, we thought about the after-life and entrusting our future into God's hands. But how literally to take what Sunday's Gospel says about the end of time? It is hard to know about the Last Day. Jesus himself said that "no man knows the date, not even the Son, but the Father only."

A devotional advice much favored by preachers, was "always live as though each day may be your last?" Most people tend to pay much attention on the last things. Sobering and spiritually purifying on occasion, yes, especially in November; but most days, like Martha in the Gospel we are fully occupied with immediate tasks, busy with many things. Remember the practical advice given by St Paul to some people who were excitably looking out for the Lord's return and neglecting their ordinary duties. "Go on quietly minding your own affairs," he says this weekend's reading. "And if anyone will not work, neither let him eat!"

Living in the present is more important than worrying about the future. Worries will bury us, so, let us not worry about the future or regret about the past but rather live in the present with the lord and with one and another.

God Bless You All,

Fr. Suresh B. Bakka

Diocese Events

- As part of celebrating this Eucharistic Year, the Vocations Office wanted to highlight the connection between the Eucharist and the Priesthood for our people in a meaningful way. To celebrate the Eucharistic Renewal, we asked priests who are ministering in our Diocese to share with us some of their memories from the altar: Masses of Thanksgiving, Anniversary Masses, and Ordinations. Since this is National Vocation Awareness Week, we thought this would be the perfect week to share this video with everyone in the diocese. Enjoy these moments where our priests repeat the words of Jesus and make Him present to all of us once again in the Blessed Sacrament!

- Surviving the Holidays - Are you grieving the loss of a loved one, or know someone who is? The holiday season can be especially painful. Surviving the Holidays will help participants discover how to deal with emotions and traditions and how to find hope for the future. The gathering will take place on Tuesday, November 8, from 6-8 pm at Good Shepherd Parish in the conference room. There is no fee to attend but there is a $5 fee for the workbook. Please contact Sue Kroupa at 812-449-3740 or skroupa@evdio.org with any questions.
